

SENATE RESOLUTION 303

By Kilby

A RESOLUTION to honor and recognize Jeremy Davis for his meritorious service as the research analyst for the Senate Environment, Conservation and Tourism Committee.

WHEREAS, this legislative body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Jeremy Davis is one such individual who has distinguished himself in his role as a research analyst for the Senate Environment, Conservation, and Tourism Committee; Mr. Davis's work has resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators he assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Senate Environment, Conservation, and Tourism Committee, consisting of Chair Tommy Kilby, Vice-Chair Dewayne Bunch, Secretary Doug Jackson, and Senators Raymond Finney, Roy Herron, Bill Ketron, Steve Roller, Steve Southerland, and Micheal R. Williams, are most appreciative of the fine work and dedication to excellence Mr. Davis has demonstrated throughout his illustrious tenure with the committee; and

WHEREAS, the committee members are especially thankful for Jeremy Davis's snazzy outfits and marvel at his sartorial ability, admiring how he looks so well put together throughout each legislative session, despite the lengthy and prolonged committee meetings; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Davis also has a sharp eye for interior design, which he is able to display at his beautiful new home in Brentwood, he even put up actual window treatments, instead of the usual sheets over the windows; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Senate Environment, Conservation, and Tourism Committee look forward to seeing his new home when they, along with the rest of their fellow

Senators and the Senate staff, attend a barbecue which Jeremy Davis promises will not last longer than committee meetings; and

WHEREAS, he is widely known for his grasp of film trivia and can decisively list the number on the side of the U.S.S. Enterprise and the number of times Clint Eastwood says “make my day”; and

WHEREAS, he was a proud member of the Kappa Alpha Fraternity at Tennessee Tech University, to which he pledged with his idol and mentor, Lee Harrell, super analyst for the Senate Education Committee and knower of all things lottery; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Davis evinces the spirit of dedication and commitment to excellence that is characteristic of a true Tennessean; and

WHEREAS, Jeremy Davis has brought his many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill and the Senate Environment, Conservation, and Tourism Committee, and has earned the respect and admiration of his peers and the General Assembly as a whole for the superior quality of his work; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Davis has performed his many duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum; and

WHEREAS, Jeremy Davis is wholly committed to the noble precepts of public service that have earned Tennessee recognition as the “Volunteer State”, and he should be specially recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we hereby commend Jeremy Davis for outstanding service as a research analyst for the Senate Environment, Conservation, and Tourism Committee and extend to him our best wishes for continued success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
